

BEAKER STREET CRAWL

FREE EVENT!

SAT 5 AUGUST, 10AM–5PM

Explore nipaluna/Hobart through the lens of science on the Beaker Street Crawl: A free self-guided tour around the city visiting some of our best makers, thinkers, producers, and sellers. Discover the science behind everyday life, and see the city from a new perspective!

CRAWL STOPS

1. BEAKER STREET NERD COLLECTIVE

Salamanca Market 9am–2pm
Salamanca Place, next to the info booth
Come on down to Salamanca Market to have a chat about anything and everything! We'll have scientists, marching bands, bagpipes, microscopes, and so much more. Start the Crawl off right!

2. FRONTIERS FOR YOUNG MINDS

Institute for Marine and Antarctic Studies (IMAS) 10am–2pm
20 Castray Esplanade
Science for kids — edited by kids. Experience the spirit of polar expeditions and explore what a wax candle and the Antarctic ice sheet have in common.

3. THREATENED SPECIES PROJECT

Wild Island 10am–2pm
Shop 8, 33 Salamanca Place
Tasmania's Threatened Species List comprises 683 species of plants and animals. Learn about these species and their plight, chat with the artists and scientists working with Tasmania's most threatened species, and listen to Tassie's own Plant Machine.

4. GET IN THE GROOVE

Suffragette Records 10am–3:30pm
52 Sandy Bay Road
Ever wondered how music is stored in the grooves on a vinyl record? Uncover the secrets behind analog music, explore the environmental impacts and future of vinyl records, and pick up some tips for caring for your collection while listening to records celebrating music by women.

5. HADLEY'S ART PRIZE

Hadley's Orient Hotel 10am–4pm
34 Murray Street
Travel around Australia through art and see how artists are responding to changing landscapes. Learn about orange-bellied parrots and make an orange-bellied parrot paper plane. At 3:30pm, listen in on a talk about the role of creativity in environmentalism and scientific problem solving.

6. BEAKER + BUGS

Artery 10am–2pm
137 Collins Street
We love all things Natural History and Science at Artery! Come celebrate our wild side on the Beaker Street Crawl. We will have 10% off the brands showcased in our Window Display, only during out Crawl hours.

WIN! Beaker Street Crawl participants have the chance to win some incredible prizes - including vouchers from Blundstone and a $1,000 Tasmanian Sapphire! To find out more, visit beakerstreet.com.au/beaker-street-crawl

7. SHAPESHIFTERS

Fullers Bookshop 10am–5pm
131 Collins Street
Did you know that one of the world authorities on jellyfish lives in Hobart? She does, and we've invited her to install a jellyfish display in our front window. While you're here, why not try a jellyfish-themed treat at our café?

8. PLANT ADVOCACY THROUGH FABRIC DESIGN

Deborah Wace Studio 10am–5pm
Level 9, 65 Murray Street
Step into Deborah Wace's fabric design and printmaking studios, and open a window into the botany of Tasmania's wild and endangered plant communities. Watch short films showcasing her arts practice and view underwater silk forests of seaweed designs in a silken, linen, and wallpaper wonderland.

9. GLOW SHOW

Glow Show Tasmania 10am–1pm, 2pm–5pm
Level 1, 71 Murray Street
Tassie's wildest side glows in the dark: the aurora, sea sparkles, glowworms, ghost mushrooms, even fluorescent marsupials! Join Dr Lisa-Ann Gershwin for captivating stories and mesmerising imagery. And if your hair is blond or grey, you might just discover that you are fluorescent too!

10. BRAILLE STORM!

Hobart Library 10:30am–12:30pm
Level 1, 91 Murray Street
Braille was developed nearly 200 years ago and is still an effective way to read for many people who are blind or have low vision. Find out how to use a braille machine and explore braille items from the past and present with the experts from Vision Services. Learn how to make your own bookmark embossed with your initials in braille.

11. THE WEIRD AND WONDERFUL

State Library of Tasmania and Tasmanian Archives
91 Murray Street 10am, 11:15am, 12:30pm
Note: booking required (see website)
This guided tour with State Library and Archives staff will provide a rare chance to see hidden spaces and unusual artefacts within the tower building at 91 Murray Street. Please book ahead at beakerstreet.com.au.

12. THERE SHALL BE FIRE

Metal Urges Fine Jewellery and Diamonds 10am–2pm
Suite 3, 105 Liverpool Street
Meet the pyromaniacs at Metal Urges. You'll see some seriously hot things happening, and they'll share secrets for finding your own gemstone treasures in the wild. Plus... you might win a $1,000 Tasmanian Sapphire!

13. CROISSANT ALCHEMY

Pigeon Whole Bakers 2pm–5pm
32 Argyle Street
A lot of magic has to happen to turn flour, yeast, and butter into those golden, flaky crescents of goodness. Uncover the secrets of croissant alchemy with a peek into the process. And yes, there will be tastings available!

14. TURNING GIN ON ITS HEAD

Forty Spotted (Gin)bar 2pm–5pm
Level 1, 30 Argyle Street
Join us on a local botanical adventure! Drop in to our botanical sensory lab, see all the elements of the gin making process, and understand more fully what goes into making your favourite Tassie gin. Enjoy a unique flight of Forty Spotted Gin for a special price.

15. THE KEY TO UNDERSTANDING

Mawson's Huts Replica Museum 12pm–4pm
Corner of Morrison and Argyle Street
As Douglas Mawson and other scientific expeditioners discovered, Antarctica and the Southern Ocean hold the key to understanding and influencing many things you might not know about. Come along to our interactive science demonstrations and be fascinated by Antarctica and the Southern Ocean's relevance to everyday life.

16. BEYOND MEASURE

Sunroom Gallery 10am–4pm
37 Hunter Street
Join invited artists, lecturers, and students from the UTAS School of Creative Arts and Media as they engage in a dialogue about the symbiotic relationship between art and science.

17. KAIROS

Rosny Barn, Rosny Farm Art Centre 10am–4pm
Lot 2, Rosny Hill Road, Rosny Park
How are natural spaces and trees experiencing time during this 'existential crisis'? Kairos seeks to explore these experiences through a unique immersive, audio-visual experience, and will showcase cinematic landscapes, creating a context for Dr Merri Randell's new Tasmanian landscapes.

18. SOUNDS GOOD

Sound Preservation Association of Tasmania 10am–3pm
19 Cambridge Road, Bellerive
Player pianos, gramophones, and radio were once the state of the art, and took science into entertainment and into the lounge room. See and experience how sound was recorded and replayed, from the late 1800s to today, at the home of the 1897 Bellerive Post Office.
