Welcome to our 10th Birthday Party Festival.

We kick off with Hobartica, our Antarctic Outpost on Nipaluna/Hobart’s waterfront. Our second weekend is the Festival Epicentre, where you’ll find Main Stage talks, live music, microscopy booths and zoological oddities, exhibitions, amiable wandering scientists, seriously good food and drink, and such a bounty of distractions that you may forget to go home. Throughout August and around our spectacular island home of Lutruwita/Tasmania, we’ve put together a mind-expanding lineup of Field Trips, Workshops, Dinners, and more at stunning locations hosted by experts in every corner of the state. It’s science, but not like you’re thinking. Come along to quench your thirst... for knowledge.

Beaker Street acknowledges and pays respect to the Palawa/Tasmanian Aboriginal community as the traditional and original owners, and continuing custodians of this land on which we come together to discover and share knowledge. Always was, always will be, Aboriginal land.

EAT AND DRINK

HOBARTICA 6 – 9 AUGUST

Enjoy dinner and a polar nightcap inside our Antarctic precinct with some of Tassie’s best local fare, from a hearty winter stew by Rough Rice to Frank Restaurant’s famous meatballs, to freshly shucked oysters, and why not pair them with a krill cocktail?

FESTIVAL EPICENTRE 14 – 16 AUGUST

Calling all Thirsty Nerds! We’ve got a bar in every venue, and most of them sell cake. Enjoy a beverage at City Hall, TMAG, the Hope & Anchor, and our Market Place Street Party for celebratory drinks, delicious meals, and a hearty serve of merriment.

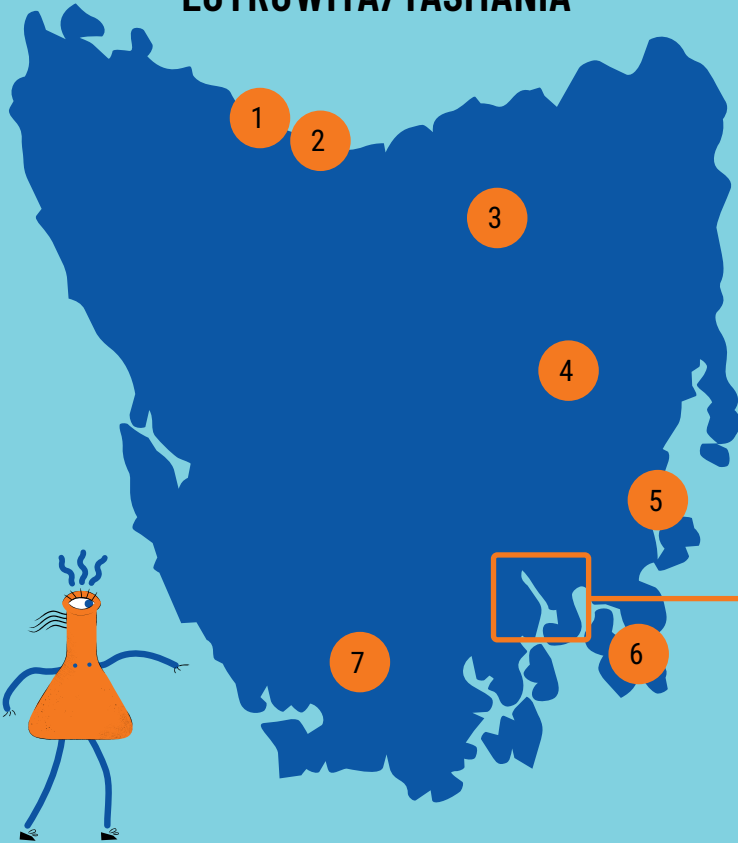

AROUND THE ISLAND

Our program of dining and drinking events spans every corner of the state, from Indigenous astronomy and nomnoms at Mount Gnomon Farm in Penguin, to a full day of fermentation in Launceston, to a mushroom growing workshop inside an abandoned railway tunnel in Mt Rumney.

THE SECOND ACT BEGINS

Ten years ago, I had a vision for what a great night out could be: Microscopes on bar tables, chatty scientists roving through the crowd, fascinating talks kicking off friendly debate, live music, drinks, dancing, and great conversations between strangers everywhere you looked.

I never could have imagined how strongly the idea would resonate. I’m incredibly grateful for the wonderful community that has grown around the Festival: the hundreds of scientists, artists, and creatives who have brought it to life, and, of course, the thousands of fabulous nerds who turn up to be part of it every year.

We’re marking Beaker Street Festival’s 10th year with our 2026 theme The Second Act. At a time of reckoning and reinvention for humanity, the theme is a provocation to interrogate our assumptions, invite debate, ask harder questions, and reaffirm our connection with each other, in real life.

Thanks for your love over the past decade. I can’t wait to celebrate with you this August!
